Office Memorandum.

Communications giving notices of suits against Government which are under statutory requirements addressed to the Chief Secretary to Government are now being referred to the Administrative Branch or Section concerned direct without being brought to the notice of the Chief Secretary.

2. In future, such communications will, in the first instance, be referred to the General Miscellaneous Branch, where a special register of such cases will be maintained and the progress watched. Each communication will be submitted by the General Miscellaneous Branch on the day of its receipt to the Chief Secretary for perusal or orders, and afterwards sent to the Administrative Branch or Section concerned for further action.

By Order,
Sd/- K. Latthan,
Chief Secretary to Government.

To
The Superintendent, General Miscellaneous Branch, for information and guidance.
